

TESTIMONIALS

Physical Pain and Estrangement

"I have been dealing with symptoms related to extreme childhood trauma, abandonment and estrangement for many years. In 2012, the pattern of estrangement repeated and I lost contact with my adult child in a way that I never expected and was unable to bear or repair.

I have had no contact with my child since 2012. I was so distraught that I wanted to die. I called the Suicide Prevention Hotline almost every day. (Those folks are good at what they do.) I blamed and punished myself for what happened. I missed my grandchildren. Other family members, including the other parent, tried to intervene, but their attempts made the situation worse and eventually they were also "fired." I went through a divorce, a move and a career change. I quit my job as a social worker with foster children. I lost my identity as a mother, grandmother and social worker. I had worked very hard earlier in my life to put myself through graduate school, work and raise children. I felt very sorry for myself. My good friends and family members were drained by my distress and inability to come to terms with what happened. My entire life unraveled.

Beginning in 2012, I cried in my sleep for 3 years, waking to a soaking wet pillowcase every day. I was able to function, but not as well as I wanted to. I became physically ill and was almost bedridden in 2019. My diagnosis was PTSD plus Depression and Fibromyalgia. I wanted to recover but knew I needed help. I reached out to psychologists, psychiatrists, medical doctors, naturopaths, energy healers, hypnotherapists and shamans to free myself from the crippling emotions and physical pain. I was so impaired that I could walk for only short distances and had to stop doing all other physical exercise, including yoga. I had chronic hip pain that impaired my sleep. I had spent thousands of dollars and lost many years of productivity when I was referred to Debbie by a friend in Georgia.

I worked with Debbie one time and the next day woke up expecting to feel the daily lump in my throat and physical pain (my new normal since 2012). I felt good! After 2 weeks I was out of physical pain during the day. I could sleep through the night without being awakened by hip pain. I'm walking and exercising again and beginning to re-build strength and endurance. Physical and emotional. I have not had a crying spell since my first Energetic Fusion session. My child and grandchildren are still absent from my life, but I have been able to let go and allow God to take over. I am still sad, but I have accepted what I cannot change by myself.

I have worked with Debbie twice now and believe I will need to keep going for at least another 10-20 sessions. I don't want to stop too soon. I have hope. I want my life and joy back permanently. Because of the progress I've been able to make in 2 sessions, I know I will continue to get better.

I became certified as a Hypnotherapist in 2017 opened an office. But I had to close my practice because of physical illness and the feeling that I could not honestly help others until I cleaned up my own life. I do want to help others. One of my goals with Debbie is to get back on track with what I have to offer others. I believe I'm on my way."

Deep Soul Clearing

"Oh Debbie, I absolutely love you. I know you worked hard on me and it was an experience that I will never forget. I feel the effects of your work and was finally able to talk about some of my hidden pain and openly discuss my process. I'm so grateful to the Universe for leading me to You. I am planning on setting up another session with you. I am just giving myself time to process and enjoy the effects of our last clearing. I love you and honor your gifts. I know you call it Energetic Fusion but my session felt more like Deep Soul Clearing.... You are truly Powerful, Patient, Understanding, Knowledgeable, Loving, Amazing and Definitely a Master Healer of your Craft. That beautiful journey reminded me that although I came here in pain I don't have to remain in pain or leave here in pain. You moved boulders and exposed All that was hidden just to allow me a chance to remember what peace felt like. I cried after our session and was so Grateful for our connection and the words of wisdom you shared with me afterward. I felt so vulnerable and I know that I have a lifetime of work to do but the spaces you cleared are now filled with eternal Love and Light. I am forever Grateful."

Nef D.

Client with OCD, anxiety, and some auto-immune stuff on her third session. Was able to identify the deep-seated belief which was "I am dying". Not I might die, or I'm going to die but I AM dying. Now, in no way, shape or form is she actually dying. It's just her OCD telling her that. Imagine trying to heal herself while truly believing she is dying. She did some courageous work, and we were able to fully clear that.

When the session was complete, she gave me a compliment I have never heard before that I loved. She said, "In my entire life, I have never felt this whole." Victory!

A Visitor

My last client had lost his brother in a car accident the day before Thanksgiving. I swear he came through during the healing session. I could literally feel his hand on my shoulder as we worked. I had to tell him I'm not a medium and couldn't get messages. When he didn't go anywhere, the client suggested we clear whatever his brother thought we should clear. It was a magical, powerful, spiritual experience. We were both in tears by the end of it. It opened him up so much. I felt his brother's presence leave after that.

Multiple Chemical Sensitivity

I just ended my day with such a total victory. Client with multiple chemical sensitivities, POTS, migraines, massive anxiety, dozens and dozens of foods she can't eat. Her life is controlled by this. She has been to every naturopath and doctor there is. Part of the problem is she can't take any supplements so they can't treat her. Because she reacts to the supplements as well. As I always find with MCS people, her parasympathetic nervous system is only functioning at 16%. Also issues with sympathetic nervous system, Celiac plexus, central nervous system, and more. As we worked through bringing the parasympathetic nervous system back, the periodic table showed up. The two items there were manganese and selenium. She reacts to anything that has manganese or selenium in it. And God only knows. I'm sure these minerals are in everything. I dug further to find an incident that had happened that was probably the original occurrence. And her physical, etheric, astral and mental bodies carried this memory. It was also carried in her throat. So every time she ingested these substances, she reacted. This was a freaking amazing session. There is nothing more powerful than giving somebody hope. Her whole life is controlled by this and I can't wait to get her through it. I needed this win too. Ending my day on a good note. Win. Win.

Abundance Group testimonial

Below is the testimonial for a client who explicitly stated she did not want to join the abundance group - before I ever saw her. She was so adamant about it that we talked - I wanted to understand the mindset. To her, if she joined the group she was not getting the individual attention. I did not sell her or push her or 'strongly urge her'. I simply explained the value of the morphogenetic field created by a group healing. She joined, and this is what she wrote to us.

"I booked a private session for Abundance with Debbie, thinking the more one on one attention would be better FOR ME. I am really clearing all the negative patterns or other so I can switch over into abundance. As you know, I've had sessions with Scott, Glenda & Debbie all around with anything removing, blocking, attaching or other to release all patterns. So I am definitely willing to do whatever it takes.

Now during my private session of EF/SRT with Debbie, she strongly “urged me to join the group” and the telegram and I would get so much more out of this. Because I trust her lead and process, I did the same day. I will continue to do my private sessions with her for the rest of my list of 9 items. BUT OMGGGGGGGG LET ME TELL YOU THE DIFFERENCE.

I listened to the March 6th recording on Saturday morning 19th about 11am. After a solid 8 hour sleep the night before, I was NOT tired what so ever. The energy for the group is just different like Debbie stated it would. There is abundance of energy in the group I didn't get from the private. It's collective ENERGY I CANNOT EXPLAIN. I went out ...completely OUT, and woke up hearing your voice saying “Thank you guys” see you in the two weeks. I was shook I was out in such a solid state. ALMOST DROOLING I WAS OUT, in such a deep subconsciousness. It was wild to me.

I literally was counting down the hours for the next day (Sunday the 20th for the 2nd session) and it didn't disappoint me at all. Such a different vibe & feel and if I can share and help others get into this, it's my pleasure to speak up. I know this type of work is out there for a-lot of people, but there are many SOULS that need all of this work you guys offer. So Let me know how I can give a testimonial or other to help promote it all."

Pain Relief

Yesterday's client: "Had a rough night/early morning. Neuralgia. Pain in my lower skull and connection to shoulder blade on the right. Goes down my side to lower back this a.m. Almost like it is poking holes in my tendons that feel like ropes. Twinges in the skull too. Had to take pain meds to get it under control. Ear pain as well."

She couldn't meet up and needed immediate help so I did her remotely (without her). This morning's text: "I could be an evangelist this morning. I feel so much better and had a solid eight hours of sleep. So much improvement! Thank you!"

Abundance testimonials

The abundance group is only ten days in. Still time to join (first two recorded sessions will be sent to you). Some manifestations in the first 10 days:

*I just got three new client inquiries at once that's abundance 💜

*I have some required disbursements from an IRA put into my account every month - appx $250. With the economy, etc. I kind of assumed I'd get slammed in 2021, and my disbursements would be less (that is NOT an abundance mindset). This month it was, out of the blue $350. So, I don't know if that was extra/leftover from 2020 or if it will continue but I was delighted. How can it possibly get any better than that?!?!?

*Alright guys, I wanted to share a flurry of abundance from this week. 1st: we are in the process of refinancing our home and our appraisal came back at exactly my high estimate. 2nd: my husband's bonus came in higher than expected and 2 months early. 3rd: my mom told me Monday that she will be sending me money from a property that sold, was supposed to be part of my college fund (graduated 10 years ago during a recession) definitely had no idea that was gonna happen. How could it possibly get any better than that!

*A few abundance moments from my week so far -

- After years of healing an ankle injury I've finally been able to squat over 130lbs and resume my HIIT workouts!! Feeling so free and abundantly strong. Yay body 💪

- A company I'm a partner in has had major sales the last few days. Some of the best I've seen in months 🙏

*And of course, there is my previous post about my income now exceeding what it was in my IT work.

And that's just the first 10 days.

Referral from a Client

A client sent me her sister yesterday. Normally my stuff takes a month to integrate, but sometimes there are things that are needed that provide quicker results. As I sat with this client, I just saw a little girl that was sad, and ignored, and needed to be emotionally held. I finished the session not really being able to determine whether she was happy with the session or not. Later, her sister sent me this.

"I just wanted to say how INCREDIBLY thankful I am to have you on my sidelines as a healer and defender, and that I can pass your info to people I love, like my sister and partner, and know it will truly help them. Such a blessing to have been sent you." Totally made my day.

Note from a client after her cardiologist appointment.

"My labs all look great!! LDL down 20%. He is very pleased. Pulses are super strong. Called me a 'super pumper'. Yay! Did a treadmill test and he said I threw no PVCs at all and my heart laughed/yawned at the test. All great news, so thanks again!"

Teamwork on Difficult Birth

Client had her 2nd child this morning. She hemorrhaged after the first one, and it was horrible. Left her with some brain damage and other things. She was terrified. She was in touch with another HH Collective team member this morning, texting from the hospital. She was relaying messages to me.

The baby was good but her uterus was not hardening afterwards as it should. She was getting very anxious. I did my magic, and told her it would take about 45 minutes to integrate so she should hang in there. She could feel it shifting within minutes. Within 20 minutes, the nurses told her and said it was improving, and she would not need intervention. Was it my work? We will never know but I am grateful to have been part of it.

It takes a village. The other team member phrased it perfectly: "I just want to say how monumental, emotional, important, precious, miraculous this life is and the amount of healing she signifies! A woman who had a traumatic first birth, hemorrhaged, retained her placenta, seized and suffered debilitating effects from losing her vision, needing a full-time caregiver for her and her child, unable to drive, constant migraines and nerve damage to in just a little over a year of working with us she just had an unmedicated all natural birth! The power in this is not lost on me. "

Pain and More

I love this client - she always tells me what's good/what's changed before telling me what she wants to work on. I'll take it as a testimonial.

"We started working b/c of physical illness (fibro+tendonitis+nerve pain) from a medical accident (drug Rx given to prevent meningitis) that I was told I would never recover from. The other main issues were extreme emotional pain from estrangement from oldest daughter; death of mother in 2016 & the blow up of my family of origin; and divorce in 2017 which, resulted in loss of extended family & friends. Not all---but lots of people I had loved.

After the divorce, I re-married (miracle) and moved to a new city. I am truly happy with my husband (a friend of 30 years). When I reached out to you, I felt like a "War Bride." Someone who had lost everything, escaped from a situation of devastation, and found love and security in a new land ---- grateful, but also disoriented from many losses. A week after my wedding, I got sick (an eye virus that spread to cellulitis on my face). My doctor gave me heavy antibiotics b/c he feared it would spread to my brain. The treatment damaged the connective tissue in my whole body and I could not walk. It was pretty scary. And my husband did not know if I would recover.

Today, I AM PHYSICALLY PAIN-FREE. I'm recovered, but still working to regain strength and energy. My 2 youngest daughters have come back into my life. My middle daughter told me she would "never desert me again." My youngest told me she wants to repair and she no longer blames me for the divorce from her dad.

Since my last session with you, some of the relationships you and I worked on to harmonize have resulted in more distance, which saddens me---but it is probably for the highest good of both of us (e.g., my sister; my brother & his wife).

My dad and ex-husband have faded out and I no longer feel guilty or responsible for them."

ADHD, Bipolar, New Direction

Young client, male, maybe 25. I wrote about him before. At his second session he said he had changed - he wanted to wake up - to live up to his full potential, to stop getting away with stuff. This revelation would have been plenty for me.

As of today, he has finished all but 4 things on his list. He no longer cycles from bipolar - his mood is stable. He no longer has what he termed 'inner irritation' in his brain. He no longer wants to run away and have no responsibilities. He no longer feels disconnected from everything. His ADHD feels completely gone. Today he told me he used to check his attention by counting the lines in the road to see how far he could get before his mind went elsewhere. He said he used to get to 6. Yesterday he got to 120. He was previously obsessed with perfectionism and it tangled him up so badly. Today he said he laughs at it, and knows better, and there was nothing left around it to clear.

I didn't do this, he did. He tried a session because his girlfriend loves working with me. And he got motivated to change - to get out of his own way. I didn't motivate him, what we cleared with the work did. Now he has his whole life in front of him. These are the kind of things that make me so grateful for my work and my clients. This precious young man could have gone a whole different direction but he didn't. He is my heart. My hope. So blessed.

Pregnancy at 39

Cool experience. I had a client mid-April who is 39 and can't get pregnant. We approached it from many different ways over about 3 sessions. In the April session, at the end I was checking her chakras to wrap up. The uterus chakra should be one inch. Hers was 12 inches. It occurred to me to ask, if that was the correct size for her. It was, and based on that I told her she might want to take a pregnancy test. No other symptoms or anything.

Saw her yesterday and she was 14 weeks pregnant. Waited for her mom to arrive and took the test two days after our last session.

"I had such an amazing appointment with Debbie yesterday! I had given her a list of 10 issues, and since then I had gotten covid so she kindly treated me for that too and my symptoms have improved! I am a true believer in SRT and EF. I've worked with Debbie a couple times and always feel an instant shift. I've already booked 2 other appointments! She found stealth pathogens as the culprit for my low white count and POTS! I've been searching for answers and reasons for these things forever! I am a fan and a lifer!!

"Hi Carina,

I wanted to write you to express how clearly I felt the powerful shifts my first session of Energy Fusion with Debbie. I have pursued countless healing sessions of all kinds over the decades and while I always feel satisfied with the results of such healing sessions, I've never felt a permanent shift as I did with my first session with Debbie. It was subtle but clear and potent. I felt lighter somatically and in spirit, particularly in my heart space. I felt freer and more trusting, and less guarded which is a big defense mechanism I employ to keep from getting hurt. And, as I'm sure you know, being guarded keeps you from getting hurt but conversely you don't take risks and experience joy. As such, I am more present and feel more interested and in flow with my social life and happier. I also feel less obsessive about first chakra issues and more able to expand my perspective and take risks.

Thank you for pursuing your path and bringing the HH collective to fruition, and particularly for having Debbie and sharing her gifts"

Testimonial about purchase of abundance package (video and audio)

"So, it has been 1 week since I bought this package. I listen to it every night while falling asleep and play it on a loop very low while sleeping. I also listen when traveling in the car and on the airplane. Within this first week I have had 5 "out of the norm" events
Bring me unexpected money

1. I won $300 on a scratch off lottery tickets the first day
2. I donated a couch 3 months ago and the owner of the thrift store messaged me on Facebook informing me that they had found a wallet in the couch. It was my sons wallet with $150 of birthday money we had misplaced 6 months ago.
3. I am in sales and I had 3 new accounts place an order while I was in the office and had closed the sale before leaving. The normal life of this type of sale is 3-6 months.

4. I sold 3 cases of additional products without even calling the accounts. They just decided to buy my products.

5. I won $75 on another scratch off last night.

This abundance package works and it works well. Belief in something you do not quite understand is faith and I will tell you that I'm am learning how to turn thoughts into things with each new day""

"I don't really know where to begin in writing a review for Debbie Loshbough. My work with her began maybe three years ago now with Energetic Fusion which was during a time of my life when I was pondering making a big change in my life circumstances. Working with Debbie I was able to clear away old patterns of thinking and behaving which allowed me to see clearly. I Became empowered to make to make choices for my greatest and highest good.

Recently I have worked with Debbie on her Weight and Body Image program which totally blew me away. Again, I was able to do away with old mental patterns and habits, The old story that I told myself for 50 years was now in the rearview mirror and I have entered I'm really fun, joyful, creative time in my life.

With total and honest conviction, I will say Debbie is one of the most connected people to universal energy whom I have had the blessing to meet. I highly recommend working with Debbie , I can say unequivocally she has changed my life, and I am a better person for knowing her, and working with her, and having faith in what she does."

You, my friend, are a beautiful light..... I adore you.

An Energetic Cosmic Vacuum!

"EF is a phenomenon!! I don't think my human mind can explain or understand it but I call Debbie an energetic cosmic vacuum (I've told her this)! She cleans out and transmutes all the energetic gunk that sits like tar on our soul. I know that no matter how much personal healing work I do, it would take me eons to heal and remove what Debbie can do in an EF session with her! She is AMAZING!! For me personally, a lot of what I struggle with stems from issues from past lives. Debbie mentioned this too when she read my priority list. Also, just the simple act of creating a priority list has been incredibly cathartic. Some things I've repressed have resurfaced to be acknowledged and cleared while creating my EF priority list. EF is like a total soul transformation and blossoming of self. One day you wake up and you just feel freer and lighter and smile brighter, and then it hits you – all of it is because you cleared all that stagnation, pain and trauma. My only regret with EF is that I wish I had started it sooner!

Feeling Heard

This client was resistant and a skeptic. This was after her third session.

"With all my heart, I've never in my life felt like anyone has truly and genuinely wanted to listen to me. To help me. I feel heard for the first time. She made me feel like someone really does care about me. Enough to believe in me. To help me believe in myself. I've never felt these things. That kind of love and acceptance and honest intent to be there for me without obligation or an agenda.... if that makes sense. In the past my therapy felt like I was just there to talk at them and pay them and that was that. I TRULY feel so just loved. In the purest form. She is such a special person. I'm so emotional. Thank you thank you thank you."

Wow. I had no idea. I was not doing anything special for her. Yet this might be the most powerful testimonial I've ever received.

I post this in gratitude, not out of ego. I post it to say that sometimes all it takes is you being present. Listening. Caring. Sometimes all you have to do is show up. I definitely did healing work but that's not what stuck with her. It was my presence and attention that healed her.

A testimonial from a participant in the year end and year beginning Energetic Fusion sessions.

"I just wanted to reach out and pass on how much the group EF sessions have already cleared space in my being. 🙏"

I am honestly shocked! Having received and practiced Reiki for years, I've experienced some pretty amazing results, but this has been next level.

I've dealt with attention/focusing issues my entire life, and a traumatic brain injury in 2015 left it basically impossible. But this morning I woke up at 6:30 on my own (I never wake up before 9:30 without an alarm) and have been super laser focused and energized. (Um... chronic fatigue who?) I have never in my life, nor did I ever know it was possible to be this focused. I keep laughing because I'm like whaaaaaat?!

I also feel totally centered in my body without having to be constantly and consciously shifting back into it, and I have been channeling like crazy all morning.

It's only been a few hours and I have no idea if this will last, but I truly don't care. I could live the rest of my life just being grateful for having ever been able to experience this much connection!

Needless to say... wow! I look forward to booking some 1:1 EF sessions in the future and this has been such a beautiful validation."

From a fellow healer

"I have been working with Debbie for several weeks now and I have to say I am always amazed with what she uncovers. Her Energetic Fusion and Biofield work are absolutely stellar. I don't let just anyone work on me and it takes a huge amount of trust on my part to let someone else help me and Debbie has not disappointed. I came to Debbie with some long-term issues stemming from holding onto other peoples energy and deep, intense, anger. I have been working on these issues for a very long time on my own and with a few select people with zero movement in the right direction. I finally realized yesterday that the undercurrent of anger that is usually part of my background noise is gone. It is as if I had this balloon inside of me this whole time that was full of anger and Debbie is the pin that deflated it. It is empty and I am eternally grateful to be free of it. Debbie is amazingly thorough and caring. If you have been through other healers that just didn't seem to help then I guarantee Debbie can help you. I consider her a specialist of difficult cases."

Glenda E.

"I have to do a public testimonial for Debbie Loshbough I was just going to send her a private message, but I was like let me acknowledge her publicly. Since my energy healing/clearing from her, I've noticed not only a dramatic shift within myself, but I've also noticed a shift in how others treat me. Don't get me wrong, people normally always treat me good, but since the session, with her, I have been treated GREAT!

During the session, it came up that I was heartbroken and wasn't seeing the good in humanity and was almost losing faith in the world and BABY let me tell you my faith has been renewed just by the kindness I have been experiencing from strangers (well I now call them my angels in disguise.)

This morning after my workout I went into Trader Joes and got some things that I needed and went to the checkout counter. The cashier said I'm not going to let you pay for this. I was looking at like "why; what's wrong." She then proceeds to tell me that she is going to pay for my stuff because she didn't want me using my debit card and she has some extra cash on her. This is only one example and I have a few that I could share, but I really just want to acknowledge you Debbie for the work you do and who you are! You are amazing and I NEED you to keep going healing the world one person at a time."

Also from a fellow healer – re Atlas Balancing

"Ten years ago, I fell down some stairs and was knocked out cold when my head hit a wall. Since that time, I experienced severe head, neck, and back pain on a daily basis. I could count on my fingers the number of days that I was without pain. I tried everything, massage, chiropractic, Rolfing, and Osteopathic treatments just to name a few. Nothing helped much and results if any, would only give me relief for a day or two, and then the pain would return.

I refused to take prescription medication and only occasionally when I could no longer tolerate the pain in my head, I resorted to extra-strength Tylenol, an Epsom salt bath, and took to the bed. As a result, I thought that I simply had to live with the pain for the rest of my life. NOT FUN!

It's been well over a month since our Atlas Balancing session, and I am happy to report that I have no head pain and only occasional pain in my neck when I work too many hours on the computer.

As a healer, it is sometimes difficult for me to ask for help. I have watched and admired you from the beginning of your healing-to-healer journey and I'm so glad that I was inspired to call you for help. I respectfully consider you the healers' healer and I am excited about our continuing work together.

Thank you! Infinite Love and Gratitude!"

Atlas Balancing (soundcodes) testimonial

"Sorry for my delayed response today. I've been going nonstop. I'm doing great except not sleeping very well. No more migraines! I had the start of one the other day but I was stressed and my muscles in my shoulder were really tight. After I put the girls to bed I took a hot Epsom salt bath and went to bed and was better just laying there thinking. I will say that before atlas balancing one of those days I would have gotten a full blown migraine early in the day and nothing I could have done would have eased it. I've already been catching myself and it will take my mentality a while to adjust since I'm so used to negatively thinking "oh I just picked (daughter) up the wrong way my neck is going to be out and a migraine is coming" or "I can't move that box because it will knock my atlas out" "I can't go shopping because by the end of it I will have a migraine and my atlas will be out". And I've had to catch myself a few times thinking "oh I wonder if my neck is going out because I feel this strain in my neck" I just simply reassure myself. It's very liberating!

Friday of this week will be one whole week without a migraine and my atlas being in place... I cannot tell you the last time that has happened to me...maybe as a young teenager? It's been nice waking up in the morning and going "ok girls what shall we tackle today" and not feel held back at all. I cannot thank you enough!!!!

And I'm sure the frozen shoulder syndrome I was being watched for is gone. My shoulder has felt great! I feel like I can take on the world instead of being overcome by it. That was a long "how I am" lol. Thanks again! I will keep you posted!"

I CAN TAKE ON THE WORLD INSTEAD OF BEING OVERCOME BY IT. That may be the best testimonial ever.

Years later:

"I spent most of my life in a Chiropractor's office. I will always recommend chiro work!!! BUT after years and years and YEARS of suffering with migraines despite adjustments my path crossed with Debbie. Divine intervention. I didn't fully understand her work but I was desperate! I mean let's face it, migraines = non functioning mommy and that just couldn't continue. Especially with my husband gone most of the time training or on deployments.

I made an appointment and went. I was met by the most caring being and she welcomed me right in and put me at ease. The rest, we will say is history. I have not seen a chiropractor in almost 3 years...and those migraines...gone. My atlas and spinal alignment has been stable and I've learned so much about releasing trauma and emotions and how to use vibrations to heal. Debbie is an integral part of our overall wellness care and has helped my daughter so much. My words will never be enough to thank her!

Testimonial from client, "Thanks to the Energetic Fusion work, I had the courage/self-awareness to end a relationship that wasn't allowing me to feel good about myself. I was better able to see through the manipulation and mind games and think more clearly." Victories come in so many forms.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING ABOUT EF & WORKING w/ DEBBIE

I am constantly amazed at what EF can do. In a few month's time, Debbie has brought my immune system functioning at 100%! I am also seeing progress on other chronic issues that I've struggled with for years! This mind-body-spirit healing is so effective and I'm so grateful!

I had my first EF session yesterday and I literally cannot even believe the physical changes. Debbie worked on my inflammation yesterday and today my whole body is noticeably less puffy especially my face. She worked on my Bartonella too, as I have had Bartonella streaks on my stomach for years and today they are almost gone. I am amazed. I showed my partner and he couldn't believe it either! Can't wait to continue working with her

I feel a lot better after seeing Debbie about 2-3 weeks ago! I feel much calmer and less anxious. I also did a pet session with her to help my dogs reactivity towards other dogs and he has become a lot better. He even started socializing with other dogs and barks less at children and other dogs!

I had my second EF session on Monday and we have been working on my reproductive system. I had her work on my pain during my cycle and to clear/heal any difficulties I experience with it. I am on Day 3 of my cycle and it has been the best cycle I have had in FOUR years! Usually, days 1 and 2 I am so so sick. This time around I wasn't in much pain and I don't feel as tired. It's amazing!

I have worked with Debbie for a few months now and she has helped me so much heal emotional issues I had with feeling angry. My last session was so amazing. She felt tired when working together so she checked for attachments. I had them and apparently for 10 years! Since she got rid of them, I can't express the peace I feel in my soul. I don't feel the anger anymore, the anxiety is gone too. It's like I am finally me again! Thank you So, so much!

I wanted to let you know what a big turnaround my son had since Debbie completed his health chart! I actually knew when she had started it because my mom (who watches him while I work) texted that he was acting like he felt much better after 2 days of taking a turn for the worse. He was getting bad enough we were going to take him into the Pediatrician but I didn't want to have to give him antibiotics. Then shortly after you sent me the health chart it appears he got the rest of it out of his system and he's not having any more diarrhea and he's acting back to normal! Energetic and spunky after almost 9 days of illness! Thank you, Debbie!!!!

I always look forward to my sessions with Debbie! They are like my energetic love notes to myself and my commitment to improving my health, mental wellbeing and connecting deeper into my soul & spirit.

So, I had my first EF session about 5 weeks ago. And my mom would typically play the guilt trip on me and then I would go home to my hubby and cry and get so upset. And this time I just was able to talk to him about it calmly and how weird it was that I felt so calm and collected which is a FIRST for me ever! Even my husband noticed it! I can't wait to see what else shifts after I have a few sessions down! Amazing

Testimonial Remote Atlas Balancing, complicated case

Lots of dental and jaw issues – this was a very complex case.

"Phenomenal! Very grateful for your healing work, Debbie. I had been struggling with getting my Atlas (C1) to stay in place and with cranial bones recently. After 5 or more Chiropractor adjustments and mobilization from a PT practitioner over 4 wks without any results, only continued pain, I finally remembered about Debbie and the Atlas Balancing technique.

During the session I was already feeling better alignment, less pain and in just that one hour I got very significant relief both physically and emotionally! AND I've not had any issues with the alignment or pain since my session.

Definitely will call on you in the future as you are an incredible healer, I am seeing your work getting more and more powerful too! Thank you so much.”

Remote Atlas Balancing (on fellow healer)

Remote Atlas Balancing is remarkable! During the first session, I could feel the subtle shift in my atlas and all the way down my vertebrae. I was excited to do this work with her for several reasons, but the most physical one was to address the migraine headaches I've had for years. I usually have about one a month which I am sometimes able to stop if I take medication soon enough. I'm delighted to report that the migraines have reduced substantially. I've had only one since our session and that was due to low blood sugar, so the Atlas Balancing has been very effective in eradicating this menace, besides dosing myself far less often than before.

Since the remote session, I have also noticed an incredible sense of Presence, a clarity of Being, a “groundedness”, and a connection to my soul. That connection has always been there, but I can now feel it with more illumination. It is a joy to feel this connection to Life and to more of my past lives, with a sense of knowing and appreciation for what I have lived. Perhaps some additional channels have been opened. I feel more energetic and I'm finding it easier to be positive and see the beauty of life even in challenging circumstances. It feels like I have more "flow" through my vertical power current and when I direct my attention to it, I really feel my wings. That's so lovely!

Thank you so much. This is powerful work!

ATLAS BALANCING

....Before the session I felt very off balance, my lower back felt out of alignment and heavy, and lots of tightness in my shoulder blades. After Debbie did the remote atlas balancing, I immediately felt release and relief in my lower back along with my shoulder muscles melting. Gradually my balance came back over a couple of days. After the session I could tell my body responded favorably to the sound codes and this was all done over Skype! I felt light, relaxed, and put back together again!

...Debbie is a gifted and powerful healer. She has done several sessions to help my son who has been having very serious addiction problems and depression. I am convinced she has made a significant difference and I am grateful for her; this is an understatement.

Before Debbie assisted me in my healing, gaining clarity, coming out of the fog of PTSD that I've experienced ever since I can remember, all of these symptoms and more mired me in a quagmire that continued to suck me into self-sabotage, dysfunction, lack of prosperity, and you can guess the rest. Debbie has been assisting me since the beginning of September 2012 through a very dark night of the soul. I was even hospitalized during this time for panic and anxiety the likes of which even I hadn't experienced before. Now it is the beginning of August 2013 and Debbie has assisted me (along with the Divine and "Life") through this dark and difficult journey to a state I've never experienced before. Only through Debbie could I come so far so fast. . . I feel peace, innocence, a sense of wellbeing, joy, optimism . . . Honestly, Debbie has greatly assisted me in, a way that no other has, through death and into resurrection. Nothing short of that.

I have been working with Debbie Loshbough for the last few months, and she has helped me greatly. I have regained feeling in two fingers on my left hand that had become numb, relieved a nearly constant ache over my left eye, have seen much relief from pain in my back and an improvement in my posture. Every other condition that we have been working on has shown improvement. It has been a fascinating journey as we uncover, by accessing the subconscious mind, what my body is saying. I have the highest regard for Debbie's abilities. She gives and gives - much more than is expected. I am grateful for all she has helped me with, and I highly recommend her work.
